Is Working with an Interior Decorator the Right Choice for You?

store looking for just the perfect fabric, accessory or area rug. Maybe you've tried your hand at decorating, but been "burned" after selecting fabric under fluorescent lights, only to find the colors changed dramatically when you got the fabric home. And questions around what goes where and with what - or whether you can build on what you already have or need to start from scratch, can confound even the savviest homeowner.

You might even fear that if you call in a professional decorator, your home will end up featuring the decorator's taste - not yours. Then there's the matter of cost. Are you sure you can afford the services of a professional?

Well, fear not! Let us help you put your decorating concerns to rest. From design concept to completion, a professional interior decorator can save you valuable time and money. They'll be there to help you every step of the way.

With INTERIORS by Decorating Den, the initial consultation is complimentary. During that first hour long appointment, we'll visit with you about what you have, what you like, what you don't like and what you hope to accomplish in your decorating project. We'll help you come up with a "wish list" of things that will make your dream room come true and then discuss a budget range for your wish list.

The right decorator will know how to translate the feeling you know you want in a room into a beautiful reality - reflecting the colors you desire and the style of furniture that best suits your tastes. In addition, a good decorator takes care of all the details for you - from initial design to execution. A good decorator works with YOU, respecting your wishes, your lifestyle, and your budget.

The list of benefits of working with an interior decorator is long. But the bottom line is that a professionally trained interior decorator makes your ideas work better and knows how to bring your decorating dreams into reality! Isn't it time you called in the professionals? Call INTERIORS by Decorating Den today at (636)866-4722 to schedule your complimentary initial consultation and begin to bring your dreams to life!
